PRESS RELEASE

Press Release No. 2016-0001

Today, the Supreme Court of the Virgin Islands recognizes our employees and says thank you to our amazing staff on Employee Appreciation Day.

The Court has adopted high standards for customer service and our team consistently delivers. Our employees are public servants who are devoted to providing legendary service in the administration of justice. It is through their combined years of committed service, that the Supreme Court has been able to achieve historic milestones, and continues to provide the people of the Virgin Islands with the highest degree of service.

Chief Justice Hodge expressed, "We want to say thank you to our employees who are being recognized for their tireless commitment all year long and their dedication to the Supreme Court of the Virgin Islands. We truly appreciate the time, effort, and hard work our team puts into the organization. They have sacrificed time with family and friends, other pursuits, long hours, vacations, weekends, and nights to achieve our goals. Our staff is the key to the Supreme Court's achievements and success. It is an honor to recognize the Court's employees for their continued exceptional performance."

We extend our sincere gratitude to our outstanding employees for their service, commitment, and loyalty to the Supreme Court of the Virgin Islands. They are assets to our team. Shown below are the dedicated public servants proudly serving our community.
